

WAYFINDING SIGNAGE

Large wayfinding signage will be printed on 6mm coroplast substrate and smaller rigid signs will be printed on a 2mm styrene. Coroplast is the most economical rigid substrate that is lightweight and durable. The styrene has a smooth edge for a cleaner look for smaller signs. We used both of these substrates for wayfinding signage during the 2002 Winter Games and the past several Super Bowls.

